not been able to cover the entire South we have not been able to cover the entire South we have the war. We now say, we have been moving South and are in Mississippi; and have come to stay. It is said American people love to be humbugged. It is false. They do not, but they are always willing to take hold of something new and cheap, but when they are in a condition to pay good prices they want the best. Hence, now, they want to see us, and say, "Where house you been? We want the CHAMPION SAFE. We have bought cheap Sates, and find our mistake. Your old Sales are better, and we know your Champion now must be far ahead of any others. We find you have lets of new Champion Safes in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and even over in Alabama we notice you placed the best Safe in all the South. And now we are glad you have come and sold a Safe Pepoait Safe, and many others in Vicksburg, and still another in Jackson—the best in the State."
